

225 HOMANS, JOHN

Bookbinder

Petersburg

Bookbinder in Petersburg in 1812.

The only notice of Homans in the printing trade is that of his death, as reported in the Petersburg Intelligencer: "a book binder, shot himself in a house on Old Street, and expired in a few minutes." No other information on Homans has been found, but the prevalence of his surname in the Boston area then suggests that he was from Massachusetts.

Personal Data

Died: March 1812 Petersburg, Virginia.

No other information yet discovered.

Sources: MESDA No. 17003; notice in Norfolk Herald, Mar. 30, 1812, quoting Petersburg Intelligencer.