

349 RANDOLPH, DANIEL

Apprentice

Alexandria

Apprentice printer in the Alexandria bookstore of Samuel Snowden (393).

Randolph was recorded in the city's 1806 census as being employed by Samuel Snowden and living with him in the city's First Ward. However, no further information on Randolph has yet been uncovered, largely a result of his exceedingly-common Virginia surname.

No Personal Data discovered

Sources: Artisans & Merchants.