Notes: Address of the resident governor opening the Assembly session, setting out the legislative priorities of the imperial administration, delivered on May 19, 1763. Here Fauquier reported the displeasure of the Board of Trade with the Assembly's inability to stabilize the currency fluctuations caused by the issue of paper-money during the recent war, and so guarantee a non-inflated payment of debts owed to British merchants, as well as their expectation that the problem would be resolved in this Assembly session.
