Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; 40 cm. x 32 cm. (broadside).

Notes: Dunmore here ordering compliance with his authority to grant land in the region secured by the Treaty of Camp Charlotte, which ended "Dunmore's War" on October 1774, and arrest of illegal settlers, particularly one Richard Henderson, who acquired land in Kentucky through a "purchase" from the Delaware natives there.

Bristol credits this imprint to Dixon & Hunter, who printed several items for Dunmore in early 1775; he then thought the presses of Alexander Purdie and John Pinkney to be in the control of the dissident colonists challenging crown and parliamentary authority in Virginia, and so chose not patronize either of them.
