This is possibly the last non-newspaper imprint produced by the Clarkson & Davis press; the government of Virginia relocated to Richmond in early 1780, but Clarkson & Davis were not able to finance such a move. Thus the competing firm of Dixon & Hunter, which did relocate, became the de facto printer to the Commonwealth, without title, completing all other public documents in 1780. No other Clarkson & Davis titles from 1780 are now known.

IVP Associated Names: John Clarkson (093); Augustine Davis (119)
