

Imprint No.: 1798.025

Short Title: Remonstrance of Albemarle Citizens against Alien & Sedition Acts.

Author: Citizens of Albemarle County.

Title: To the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States. We whose names are hereunto subscribed, being citizens of the county of Albemarle in the state of Virginia, are urged by considerations which we cannot resist, to remonstrate as follows ...

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Samuel Pleasants

Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; (broadside, printed in three columns).

Notes: Memorial asking repeal of the Alien and Sedition acts on constitutional grounds, as well as their overly broad language – largely a legal assessment.

Sheet lacks printer credit; as such printed protests were organized by the state's Republican leadership, it was almost certainly issued from the Richmond press of Samuel Pleasants, then both the primary Republican printer in Virginia and a junior member of that party's central coordinating committee in the state capital.

The Early American Imprints Series did not film the second sheet of subscribed signatures.

IVP Associated Names: Samuel Pleasants (331)
