

Imprint No.: 1804.047

Short Title: Address to the Freeholders of Essex, King and Queen, & King William.

Author: Banks, George W.

Title: To the freeholders of Essex, King and Queen, & King William. Friends and fellow citizens ...
Geo. W. Banks. Tappahanock [sic], 9th March, 1804.

Place Issued: Fredericksburg

Issuing Press: Chiles & Burch

Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; 44 cm. x 26 cm. (broadside).

Notes: Banks wrote to the voters of the 11th Virginia Congressional district opposing the candidacy of Carter Braxton Jr. (1765-1809) as successor to the retiring Anthony New; the son of the like-named signer of the Declaration of Independence, Braxton was the Federalist running against James M. Garnett, the Republican candidate; Garnett won this election handily.

Sheet lacks colophon; by March 1804, there was only one Republican press still operating in Fredericksburg, the nearest such press to the district, conducted by Samuel Chiles and Isham Burch, hence the attribution here.

IVP Associated Names: Samuel Chiles (092), Isham Burch (062)
