

Imprint No.: 1805.008

Short Title: Report on Proceedings of December 1804 Assembly.

Author: ----

Title: ... The present session of the General Assembly is now drawing to a close, we shall therefore proceed to give you all the information that we can, in the bounds of a common letter, on the most important and interesting subjects that has engaged the attention of the Legislature during this session ... Richmond, January 28th, 1805.

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Uncertain

Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; 39 cm. X 23 cm. (broadside).

Notes: Collective constituent letter reporting on proceedings of the December 1804 Assembly. Only known copy held by the Duke University Library; however, their catalogue does not record the letter's authors, nor did Hummel in his bibliography. Sheet lacks colophon; as such letters were a business staple for Richmond job-printers, this item could have issued from any of the press offices there, so the indeterminacy here.
