

Imprint No.: 1809.001

Short Title: Amended Report on Foreign Relations with Great Britain and France.

Author: Virginia. General Assembly.

Title: [Report of the committee to whom were referred sundry resolutions touching, among other things, our foreign relations, and the measures of the administration consequent thereon].

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Samuel Pleasants

Description: Unrecorded

Notes: No copy known extant; the conflicting dictates issued by Great Britain and France concerning maritime trade in the Atlantic, and the Jefferson administration's Embargo Act in response to them, resulted in a large number of petitions and memorials being submitted to the General Assembly; these were submitted to a select committee who offered this report on December 19, 1808, and the House immediately ordered 250 copies printed by public printer Samuel Pleasants, for use of the Assembly in its deliberations. This amended report with resolutions was ordered printed in January 7, 1809, before a set of resolutions was finally adopted on February 16th (printed in the acts of this Assembly session).

Title lacks colophon; attribution here from the order to print copies on January 7th.
