Short Title: The Quakers' Memorial.

Author: Society of Friends in Virginia.

Title: [The Quakers' memorial].

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Samuel Pleasants

Description: Unrecorded

Notes: A petition and memorial asking relief from militia service requirements and the fines levied for evading such obligations on religious grounds; a continuing issue for those denominations with conscience-based objections to mandatory military service; this missive was consigned to committee and left unacted upon during this Assembly session.

No copy known extant; Swem recorded title from order to Pleasants on December `13, 1810, to print 250 copies for the use of the Assembly in its deliberations, so the attribution here; yet content can only be discerned from published proceedings of this session in Pleasants's Virginia Argus, and not from Swem's bibliography or the official record.
