

Imprint No.: 1811.037

Short Title: Circular Letter respecting Magistrates in Commission.

Author: Virginia. Executive.

Title: [Communication from the governor to the several counties, respecting magistrates in commission].

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Samuel Pleasants

Description: Unrecorded

Notes: No copy known extant; Swem recorded this title from a payment to Samuel Pleasants on July 17, 1811, for printing this circular; his use of word "governor" brings into question when this letter issued; without a fuller description of its content, the author cannot be determined; James Monroe used the proper title governor during his brief term in office (January 19 to March 3); George William Smith, his successor, did not use the title until formally elected to the office on December 6th, using title of lieutenant governor from March to December.

IVP Associated Names: Samuel Pleasants (331)
