Notes: Only copy known held by the Library of Congress; the House ordered 250 copies of this report printed on November 24, 1814, for the use of the Assembly in its deliberations; caption title on known copy varies from title in the order to print, so Swem inadvertently recorded this item twice (8701 & 8740); Index here follows entry number for known copy.

Long-time public printer, Samuel Pleasants, died six days before this session opened; the Assembly chose to continue employing his press for most of this session, granting his widow, Deborah W. L. Pleasants, her husband's formal title until January 1, 1815; thereafter, Thomas Ritchie, the printer to the Senate, assumed that larger role, with his protégé, Thomas Burling, taking on his old assignment; this division of labor meant that most of the session's printing was completed at the Argus Office, with Ritchie picking up the load with the start of the new year, just three weeks work; still, the daily House journal was issued from the Argus Office for the duration of the Assembly. This work distribution informs the attribution made here.

IVP Associated Names: Deborah W. L. Pleasants (328); Samuel M. Pleasants (332)
