

Imprint No.: 1816.141

Short Title: Petition seeking New County from Harrison and Randolph Counties.

Author: Citizens of Harrison and Randolph Counties.

Title: To the honorable General Assembly ... petition of the subscribers of Harrison and Randolph counties ... prayeth that a new county may be laid out off Harrison and Randolph ...

Place Issued: Virginia

Issuing Press: Uncertain

Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; 32 cm. x 20 cm. (broadside).

Notes: The petitioners request for creating a new county out of their parts of Harrison and Randolph counties was declined by this session of Assembly.

Sheet lacks colophon; only known copy, held in the state archives at the Library of Virginia, is dated in manuscript on November 13, 1816, the date it was received by the House; context suggests an origin in either Clarksburg or Morgantown, but lacking any further evidence, an attribution is impracticable, so the indeterminacy here.
