

Lineage No.: DANVILLE 02

Group Title: Roanoke Sentinel

Variant 01: Roanoke Sentinel

Publication Data: August 7, 1819 to about March 30, 1822 Weekly

Proprietors: James Lanier

IVP Associates: James Lanier (261)

Notes: Only issue known extant is for September 25, 1819 (vol. 1, no. 8), indicating start date above; date confirmed by contemporaneous advertising notices. Succeeding proprietors announced purchase of paper in notice dated April 6, 1822, so end date reported here.

References: LCCN No. 85-025259; Brigham II: 1112.

Variant 02: Roanoke Sentinel

Publication Data: April 6, 1822 to before December 8, 1827 Weekly

Proprietors: Thomas H. Clark & James Connor

IVP Associates: ----

Notes: Only issue known extant is for June 21, 1823 (vol. 2, no. 12), indicating start date reported here; that date corresponds to notice of same date by Clark and Connor announcing their purchase of this paper. Connor had retired and Clark had altered title of this weekly by date of only issue known extant for ensuing Telegraph, so indeterminate end date here.

References: LCCN No. 86-071581; Cappon 416.

Variant 03: The Telegraph

Publication Data: By December 8, 1827 to after November 9, 1829 Weekly

Proprietors: Thomas H. Clark

IVP Associates: ----

Notes: Only issue known extant is for December 8, 1827 (vol. 5, no. 51), indicating change of title and ownership came without change in numbering or suspension of publication; end date suggested by Clark's death; still, it may have continued uninterrupted until James Lanier, the original proprietor, returned with succeeding Independent Statesman in May 1830.

References: LCCN No. 86071582; Cappon 420.

Variant 04: The Independent Statesman and Roanoke Commercial Gazette

Publication Data: May 14, 1830 to by early 1831 Weekly

Proprietors: Lanier & Cabaniss

IVP Associates: James Lanier (261)

Notes: Only issue known extant is for July 23, 1830 (vol. 1, no. 11), indicating start date of May 14, 1830; paper is likely a continuation of the Telegraph of Thomas H. Clark, who died November 9, 1829, A Jacksonian paper issued in Danville in the spring of 1831, suggesting a cessation of this Whig journal at about that same time, so end date reported above.
