

Lineage No.: PETERSBURG 07

Group Title: Daily Courier

Variant 01: Petersburg Daily Courier

Publication Data: September 21, 1814 to November 12, 1814 Daily (ex. Sun.)

Proprietors: Wood & Yancey

IVP Associates: John Wood (456), Francis G. Yancey (463)

Notes: First daily newspaper attempted in Petersburg; editor Wood engaged with printer Yancey earlier that summer to produce this paper; in the interim, Yancey became co-proprietor of Petersburg Intelligencer, which forced Wood to find another partner so that Yancey could focus his energies on that journal.

References: LCCN No. 83-026161 & 85-025951; Brigham II: 1130.

Variant 02: Petersburg Daily Courier

Publication Data: November 14, 1814 to December 10, 1814 Daily (ex. Sun.)

Proprietors: Wood & Netherland

IVP Associates: John Wood (456), John Netherland (312)

Notes: Following issue of November 12, 1814, Yancey withdrew from arrangement with Wood; his interest was acquired by Netherland.

References: LCCN No. 83-026161 & 85-025951; Brigham II: 1130.

Variant 03: Petersburg Daily Courier

Publication Data: December 12, 1814 to December 24, 1814 Daily (ex. Sun.)

Proprietors: John Wood

IVP Associates: John Wood (456)

Notes: With issue of December 12, 1814, Netherland withdrew from arrangement with Wood, leaving the editor sole proprietor.

References: LCCN No. 83-026161 & 85-025951; Brigham II: 1130.

Variant 04: Petersburg Daily Courier

Publication Data: December 27, 1814 to after June 22, 1815 Daily (ex. Sun.)

Proprietors: George A. Martin

IVP Associates: George A. Martin (281)

Notes: Wood skipped issue of Monday December 26th, ostensibly to give office staff a Christmas holiday; with issue of Tuesday December 27th, he publicized sale of paper to Martin, claiming that duties as president of Petersburg Academy barred his continuation. Latest issue known is that for June 22, 1815, which carried a notice of Martin's plan to enlarge the paper; both plan & paper likely expired with Great Petersburg Fire of July 15, 1815.

References: LCCN No. 83-026161 & 85-025951; Brigham II: 1130.
