

Lineage No.: WYTHE 01

Group Title: Luminary

Variant 01: The Luminary

Publication Data: Circa 1808 to about March 1809 Weekly

Proprietors: Dromgoole & Engledow

IVP Associates: William Dromgoole (149), Robert Engledow (158)

Notes: No copy known extant; existence and title reported in 1998 county history as beginning in 1808 in Rural Retreat, before being moved in 1809 to Wythe Court House, then known as Evansham, later Wytheville.

References: Not recorded by the Library of Congress or Brigham; Kegley, Town of Evansham (1998).

Variant 02: The Republican Luminary

Publication Data: About March 1809 to about November 1810 Weekly

Proprietors: Dromgoole & Engledow

IVP Associates: William Dromgoole (149), Robert Engledow (158)

Notes: Only known copy (November 8, 1809), now lost, indicated a start date of March 1809 in Wythe Court House, then called Evansham, later Wytheville; Engledow advertised sale of press in November 1810, indicating publication ceased at about that time.

References: Not recorded by the Library of Congress; Brigham II: 1168.
