Short Title: Circular Letter on Precedency of Militia Officers.

Author: Virginia. Council of State.

Title: In Council, December 20, 1787. The board proceeded to form a general rule for adjusting the precedency of captains and subalterns in the militia of the same county. ... All which matters so advised, the Governor orders accordingly. Attest. A. Blair, C.C.

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Uncertain.

Description: 1 sheet [1 pg.]; 34 cm. x 21 cm. (broadside).

Notes: Sheet lacks printer credit; during the Assembly of October 1787, the responsibility for printing official documents was split among the three Richmond presses conducted by John Dixon, Augustine Davis, and Thomas Nicolson; Dixon was officially the public printer, having become the sole holder of that office on the death of partner John Hunter Holt in June 1787, but his press office was plagued by production delays, hence the division of the public work.
