

Imprint No.: 1820.046

Short Title: The Gospel, Worthy of All Acceptation. A Sermon.

Author: Rice, Benjamin Holt (1782-1856).

Title: The Gospel, worthy of all acceptance. A sermon, preached in the Presbyterian Church, in the city of Richmond, May 1820. For the benefit of the Young Men's Missionary Society, by the Rev. Benjamin H. Rice, Petersburg

Place Issued: Richmond

Issuing Press: Franklin Press

Description: 24 pgs.; 21 cm. (8vo).

Notes: The Young Men's Missionary Society of Richmond was a project initiated by the Presbyterian evangelical John Holt Rice, and here he employed his younger brother to deliver the sermon at the society's annual spring meeting; Nathan Pollard was the society's secretary.

In mid-1820, the ownership of the Franklin Press shifted from William Waller Gray to Nathan Pollard; during that transition, titles appearing with the office's imprint did not carry the name of either printer, so leaving some uncertainty as to who produced the item; this Index attributes such works both men until Pollard's primacy is evinced later in the year.

IVP Associated Names: William Waller Gray (193); Nathan Pollard (335); John H. Rice (354)
